Cleveland State
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

DUAL ADMISSION AGREEMENT

Cleveland State Community College and
Tennessee Wesleyan University

THIS AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is entered into on July 20, 2023 by and between Tennessee Wesleyan University ("TWU") and Cleveland State Community College ("CLSCC"). The parties desire to enter into an agreement pursuant to which students participate in a program designed to assist students in obtaining an associate's degree and progress directly to a bachelor's degree program according to the terms contained in this Agreement.

1. Description of Dual Admission

a. Definitions.

Dual Admission. A student enrolled in CLSCC is admitted into TWU but does not enroll in TWU courses until the student graduates with the associate's degree. Throughout this program, students will receive cooperative advising.

Cooperative Advising. The dual admission program provides enhanced advisement and transition support services by both institutions to the student.

b. Purpose.

The purpose of this Agreement is to establish programs that promote successful experiences for students who wish to complete a degree.

More specifically, the goals are:

1. To eliminate barriers for students in attaining their educational goals.
2. To improve academic program articulation.
3. To improve student success and retention.
4. To provide a curriculum plan for students for seamless transition for earning an associate's degree and a bachelor's degree.

The parties agree that the Dual Admission program provided under this Agreement shall comply with all applicable SACSCOC, THEC, and TBR requirements.

2. Dual Admissions

a. Eligibility to Apply for Dual Admission

A student must meet the following requirements:

1. Be planning to pursue both an Associate's Degree and Bachelor's degree.
2. Meet current admission criteria for CLSCC.
3. Have earned 29 or fewer college-level semester hours and have a cumulative GPA of 2.0.

b. Ineligibility for Dual Admission

1. A student may participate in only one Dual Admission program at a time.
2. Failure to complete an associate's degree at CLSCC will end a student's participation in the program.
3. Failure to follow the requirements of the Dual Admission program will render a student ineligible for continuation in the program.

c. Dual Admission Student Responsibilities

- CLSCC students who fulfill the requirements for the Dual Admission program will be guaranteed acceptance into TWU.
- Students must apply and be admitted to CLSCC
- Students must complete the Dual Admission Intent to Participate form that includes authorization for exchange of all application and academic information between CLSCC and TWU.
- Students must earn an A.S., A.A., or A.A.S. degree from CLSCC.
- Students must maintain a 2.0 cumulative GPA to be in good standing in the Dual Admission program.
- Students who adhere to the Tennessee Transfer Pathway will be assured application of TTP credit toward the specific major at TWU.
- Students who attend another institution between the time they graduate from CLSCC and enroll at TWU must re-apply to the college as a transfer student.
- Students must reapply to the Dual Admission program if there is a break of more than one year in their attendance at the community college.
- Students must complete financial aid paperwork for TWU prior to enrolling at the college.

- Students will comply with all applicable CLSCC and TWU policies, rules, regulations, and conduct codes.
- Students may withdraw from the program by providing notice of such, in writing, to the community college.

d. Institutions' Responsibilities for the Dual Admission program

- CLSCC will provide TWU with a Dual Admission Program Intent to Participate form, high school transcript, ACT/SAT scores (if applicable) for applicants less than 21 years of age, and any other transcripts from other institutions. Students will be guaranteed acceptance to TWU rather than to a particular college or major. Admission to a major will require following the requirements of that major.
- Both institutions will provide the application for the Dual Admission program online.
- Both CLSCC and TWU will track Dual Admission students in their student information systems.
- Both institutions will maintain educational records for students taking classes at their respective institutions.
- The institutions will exchange student transcript information at the end of each academic term, and additional records may be exchanged upon request and in compliance with FERPA requirements.
- CLSCC and TWU will assign each student to an advisor from each institution.
- Each institution will develop a web presence for the Dual Admission Program.
- At the end of each semester, the community college will provide the university/college a transcript for each participant in the Dual Admission program, and the community college work will be posted as transfer credit in the university/college student information system.
- Each institution will establish a primary and secondary campus contact.
- The institutions will establish a marketing plan for the program.
- The transfer of credits between the institutions will be processed pursuant to policies and procedures of the institution that will be accepting the transfer credits.
- Each institution will apply its own administrative processes and procedures to address (a) complaints or grievances relating to its administration, faculty, staff, the student, other students, classes, services or facilities and (b) violations of its policies, rules, regulations, and/or conduct codes.

3. Advantages for Students

- Students will become familiar with the university/college staff and academic advisors, which should facilitate the transition process.
- Students will be able to view their entire degree plans at the onset of their college career.
- Students can receive a TWU student ID card. The card will allow access to all regular season TWU athletic events, cultural events and speakers. Additionally, the student ID will permit use of the TWU library services and access to TWU bookstore promotions for students.
- TWU will reserve a scholarship award for each student based on the higher of their high school senior year credentials or CLSCC transfer GPA.

4. General Provisions

- a. Semester meetings. The institutions agree to hold one or more meetings (may be by telephone) each semester to address questions and to facilitate the programs.
- b. Annual review. This Agreement will be subject to annual review by representatives of each institution. Any recommendations for revisions will be made in writing and reviewed by each institution's respective Chief Academic Officer or their designees. The requirements of this Agreement may only be amended in the form of an Amendment signed by authorized representatives of the parties and the Tennessee Board of Regents.
- c. Focus on student success. This Agreement is in keeping with the Tennessee Board of Regents focus on partnership and collaboration between institutions.
- d. Non-Exclusivity. This Agreement is not exclusive, and either party may enter into similar agreements with any other party.
- e. Term. This Agreement will be effective from the date of final signature below, the Effective Date, until terminated in writing by either party with one year prior notice. It is agreed that if terminated, both institutions will honor the terms of the Agreement for students already participating in the program at the time notice of termination is given.
- f. Non-discrimination. The parties agree to comply with Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Executive Order 11,246, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and the related regulations to each. Each party assures that it will not discriminate against any individual including, but not limited to, employees or applicants for employment and/or students because of race, religion, creed, color, sex, age, disability, veteran status or national origin.
